

“Pipe Dreams” Garners WODL Nominations

18 February 2007

ACT's recent hit show, “Pipe Dreams” by Seymour Blicher, besides breaking all previous box office records, picked up three major nominations in the WODL out-of-Festival awards for 2007. While not the winner in each category, ACT is proud to have been recognized for the quality of its efforts.

Barbara Warnock was nominated for Outstanding Director, “Pipe Dreams” for Outstanding Ensemble Production, and Peter Leack and Ron Sawyer were jointly nominated for Outstanding Performance by an Actor in a Major Role. Congratulations to everyone who was part of this great show! (For a complete list of nominations and winners, click here.)

This recognition, along with record attendance and great audience response made “Pipe Dreams” one of ACT's most successful shows in its history.

The final production of the season will be the popular musical comedy, “Nunsense” by Dan Goggin and directed by Laura Jean McCann. It promises to be a music- and fun-filled way to end our sixth season. Our seventh season is due to be announced shortly, so keep coming back for the latest news.
